

Yamuna Expressway Authority to develop new city near Noida airport, to acquire over 6000 hectares of land

The Yamuna Expressway Authority will acquire the land from 40 villages including Tappal-Bajna (771 hectares), Karauli Bangar (250 hectares), Muradgarhi (336 hectares), Rabupura (994 hectares), Tirthali (479 hectares), Mayana (252 hectares), Kallupura (218 hectares) and Mudrah (290 hectares) among others.

ASHISH MISHRA

JUNE 11, 2024 / 04:04 PM IST

Join Us

Follow Us

Yamuna Expressway Authority to develop new city near Noida airport, to acquire over 6000 hectares of land

The Yamuna Expressway Industrial Development Authority (YEIDA) will develop a new city near upcoming Noida International Airport, and it has decided to acquire around 6,065 hectares of agricultural land for the purpose, officials aware of the matter said.

YEIDA officials said that the move comes after increasing demand for residential, commercial, industrial, and institutional sectors in areas around the upcoming airport.

As per the proposal, officials said, the authority plans to acquire land from 40 nearby villages in the next two years and it aims to spend over Rs 63,000 crore to develop urban infrastructure in the region. It has set aside a budget of Rs 14,000 crore for the acquisition of land for the purpose.

A senior YEIDA official said that the Yamuna Expressway Authority will acquire the land from 40 villages including Tappal-Bajna (771 hectares), Karauli Bangar (250 hectares), Muradgarhi (336 hectares), Rabupura (994 hectares), Tirthali (479 hectares), Mayana (252 hectares), Kallupura (218 hectares), and Mudrah (290 hectares), among others.