LUCKNOW : As part of its Mission Rozgar initiative, the state government will organise major Rozgar Melas on August 17 in Ambedkar Nagar and August 18 in Ayodhya, led by the Uttar Pradesh Skill Development Mission, said a government spokesperson in a press note.

Over 150 companies will participate in these job fairs, offering more than 70,000 employment opportunities. The Rozgar Mela will be inaugurated by chief minister Yogi Adityanath, it read. The Rozgar Mela is being organised under the aegis of the Uttar Pradesh Skill Development Mission, State Industrial Training Institute, Directorate of Training and Employment Scheme, and the MSME department. The employment fairs will be held from 9:00 am to 5:00 pm. In addition to students trained by the Uttar Pradesh Skill Development Mission and ITI, other general students will also have the opportunity to participate in them.

Kapil Dev Agarwal, minister of state (independent charge) for vocational education, skill development and entrepreneurship, highlighted that the Uttar Pradesh Skill Development Mission organises various activities to employ trainees after their training. "In this context, the Rozgar Mela is being organised. This large-scale employment fair will take place at Acharya Narendra Dev Agricultural University, Kumarganj, Ayodhya. Over 100 renowned companies will be present, offering more than 50,000 employment opportunities," it said.

"Participating companies include Accenture, Adani, Bajaj Auto, Chamber of Indian MSME, Flipkart, Honda, Lava International Ltd., Myntra, Nokia, Case Corp, Suzuki Motors, Swiggy and Tata Motors," the press note said. On August 17, a Rozgar Mela will take place on Dev Indravati Mahavidyalaya Campus in Katehari, Ambedkar Nagar. At this employment fair, 46 reputed companies will be present, offering over 21,000 jobs. Participating companies will include Barbaric Nation, Chamber of Indian MSME, Flipkart, Lava International, Oreo Biscuits and Case Corp.

This event is being jointly organised by the Uttar Pradesh Skill Development Mission, Government ITI Ambedkar Nagar, and the District Employment and Deputy Commissioner Industries Department of Ambedkar Nagar.
