LUCKNOW: The Uttar Pradesh Department of Tourism has allocated ₹5 crore to enhance tourism sites in Lucknow, aiming to boost the city's cultural and historical appeal. The Sai Riverbank in Sarojininagar will see significant development, including the construction of a ghat with stairways, solar lighting, benches, and pathways, providing a tranquil environment for visitors. A budget of ₹2 crore has been sanctioned for the project.

The historic Bada Shivala Shri Siddhnath temple in Sadar Tehsil will undergo beautification with a budget of ₹1.02 crore, of which ₹60 lakh has already been released.

The development will include rest houses, benches, signage, and toilets to improve visitor convenience.

Nanak Sahi Math, an important religious site, will be developed with an allocation of ₹1
