

{ EXPLORING INVESTMENT }

U.P. govt signs two MoUs in Davos

LUCKNOW: In a significant step to bring investment in Uttar Pradesh, the Yogi government has signed two memorandums of understanding (MoUs) at Davos in Switzerland on the sidelines of the ongoing World Economic Forum (WEF) annual meeting 2025 with leading beverage company Anheuser-Busch InBev (AB InBev) and Coca-Cola.

On behalf of the state government, chief secretary Manoj Kumar Singh and Kartikeya Sharma, president of India Affairs at AB InBev, a leading global beverage company headquartered in Belgium, signed the MoU to invest Rs 1,000 crore for setting up a new manufacturing plant. Amit Singh, secretary to CM, Prathmesh Kumar, additional CEO of Invest UP, etc., were also present. HTC