

BrahMos, AI City, Lko Metro 2nd phase to propel U.P's growth

Yogi, Rajnath and Gadkari make key announcements, launch Rs 1028-cr projects

HT Correspondent

letters@hindustantimes.com

LUCKNOW: Uttar Pradesh is set to get a major boost to development of infrastructure with manufacturing of the BrahMos missile to begin in Lucknow by May-June 2025 and a nod to the Lucknow Metro expansion from Charbagh to Vasant Kunj expected soon, besides road projects worth Rs 1 lakh crore in the pipeline.

Besides the Defence Technol-

Defence minister Rajnath Singh with Union minister Nitin Gadkari, UP CM Yogi Adityanath, and deputy CMs Keshav Prasad Maurya and Brajesh Pathak, in Lucknow on Friday. DEEPAK GUPTA/HT ogy and Test Centre and Brahmos Manufacturing Centre, Lucknow is being developed not only as an Aero City but also as an Artificial Intelligence

CM TURNS SPOTLIGHT ON KUMBH REVENUE, PRAYAGRAJ INFRA

LUCKNOW: Asserting that the state is going to earn revenue of Rs 3 lakh crore from the Mahakumbh, chief minister Yogi Adityanath on Friday called for preparing the Sangam city and the rest of Uttar Pradesh for such future mega events, requesting Union minister for road transport and highways Nitin Gadkari to approve a new bridge parallel to the Shastri Bridge and a signature bridge over the Yamuna in Prayagraj. Addressing a gathering at the mini stadium in Vikas Nagar in Lucknow, the chief minister also attacked his detractors for raising a question mark on expenditure at the Mahakumbh.