

PM Modi to gift projects worth Rs 3,884 cr to Varanasi on April 11

HT Correspondent

letters@htlive.com

VARANASI : Prime Minister Narendra Modi will gift developmental projects worth over Rs 3,884 crore during his visit to Kashi on April 11, said officials.

Among the projects, PM will lay foundation of projects worth over Rs 2,255 crore and inaugurate projects worth over Rs 1629 crore.

Kashi region president Dilip Patel said that the Prime Minister will arrive in Varanasi at 9.30am on April 11. He will address a public meeting in Mehdi ganj.

More than 50,000 people of Varanasi district, including intellectuals, women, farmers, businessmen and students, will participate in the public meeting.

Patel said that preparations have already begun to make this public meeting historic.

In view of the PM's visit, a cleanliness drive has been launched in all the wards of the district from April 6 to 10.

As part of the drive, major

PM Narendra Modi File photo

temples, crossroads, parks and statues of great personalities will be cleaned. Patel said that preparations to give a grand welcome to the PM are underway.

The projects scheduled to be inaugurated include two 400 kV sub-stations and 130 rural drinking water projects worth over Rs 345 crore of Jal Jeevan Mission, Sardar Patel Government degree college, Barki worth Rs 7.6 crore, and three 400 KV substations and relation transmission lines together worth about Rs 1000 crore among others.

The PM will lay foundation of tunnel to be constructed near the Lal Bahadur Shastri International airport here. The project is worth about will Rs 652 crore.