

UPSIDA allots 46 industrial plots in e-auction

Lucknow: The state government organised a mega e-auction recently proposing investments and paving the way for the establishment of new industries across various industrial sectors.

A total of 46 industrial plots across 14 districts were allotted, according to a statement issued by the Uttar Pradesh State Industrial Development Authority (UPSIDA).

Additionally, 15 women entrepreneurs/investors participated in the auction, highlighting the strong presence of women entrepreneurship and leadership in Uttar Pradesh's industrial landscape.

Speaking on the occasion, Mayur Maheshwari, Chief Executive Officer, UPSIDA, said: "Our objective is to promote balanced industrial development in every region of the state. The investment proposals received in this auction reflect the growing confidence of investors in UPSIDA's transparent policies, digital processes, and swift approval mechanisms."
