

MODERN INFRASTRUCTURE DRAWING INDUSTRIALISTS TO U.P: DHEERAJ HINDUJA

Ashok Leyland chairman Dheeraj Hinduja said that this is the company's first manufacturing plant in Uttar Pradesh.

Praising CM Yogi Adityanath, he said that a strong and reliable system has been created in the state for industrial development and investment.

Modern infrastructure, strong connectivity, effective law and order, and accountable administration are today the identity of Uttar Pradesh, which is attracting industrialists and investors.

He also praised defence minister Rajnath Singh, adding that strength and stability of the defence system have created a reliable environment for investment in the country. "Wherever Ashok Leyland's plant is established, the local community gets direct benefits there.

Its positive impact will also be seen in Uttar Pradesh," he said.
