

'UP emerging as new tourism hub under CM'

Gorakhpur: Uttar Pradesh has emerged as a new tourism hub under the leadership of Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath, said state tourism and culture minister Jaiveer Singh on Sunday.

Addressing a gathering after inaugurating the Gorakhpur Mahotsav at Champa Devi Park near Ramgarh Tal, the minister said that before 2017,

UP was often referred to as a 'Bimaru' state but rapid development is now visible due to improved law and order and focused governance.

He said the state govt was making continuous efforts to promote tourism and culture, and festivals like Gorakhpur Mahotsav played an important role in showcasing Uttar Pradesh's rich cultural heritage at national and international levels.

MP Ravi Kishan Shukla said that under the guidance of Chief Minister Yogi Adityanath, Gorakhpur and Uttar Pradesh were reaching new heights of development. TNN
