Singapore | Lucknow: UP CM Yogi Adityanath on Tuesday said the state has received investment proposals worth ₹1 lakh crore during his visit to Singapore, and MoUs worth ₹60,000 crore have already been signed.

Speaking on the second day of his visit, Adityanath said he held “positive and productive” discussions with Singapore’s Deputy PM, home minister and energy minister on expanding economic cooperation and investment opportunities in UP.

“Since Monday, Uttar Pradesh received investment proposals worth ₹1 lakh crore during the Singapore visit. Till now, MoUs worth ₹60,000 crore have been signed,” he said.

He expressed confidence that this investment will prove to be a milestone in the direction of making the state a $1 trillion economy.

The chief minister also met top executives and chairpersons of major global fintech and investment firms, including GIC and Blackstone, and described the meetings as encouraging for future partnerships.
