

UP emerges as model of PM Modi's 5T vision: CM Yogi

UNITED NEWS OF INDIA
Lucknow, 8 March

Uttar Pradesh CM Yogi Adityanath has said that: "The five main reasons behind the transformation in Uttar Pradesh after 2017 are based on a clear vision. The government worked keeping in mind PM Modi's 5T vision:

Tradition, Technology, Transparency, Trust, and Transformation. When Tradition, Technology, Transparency, and Trust come together, Transformation takes place". He further said: "We respected India's traditions and heritage, and this naturally paved the way for development. When we connect this with technology, it becomes easier.

Transparency creates a sense of trust among the people, and that trust ultimately becomes the reason for transformation. Uttar Pradesh has emerged as a model of this 5T framework".

CM Yogi Adityanath was addressing the state-level programme organised at here on International Women's Day on Sunday. On this occasion, he honoured beneficiaries of various schemes and also inaugurated the Pink Rozgar Mahakumbh 2026 employment fair.

The CM also visited the exhibition and watched a short film presented by the Labour Department. While mentioning various schemes, he extended his greetings to all the beneficiaries and the women who were honoured at the programme.

Referring to the Prime Minister's statement, CM Yogi said: "No society can become self-reliant by ignoring half of its population. When Narendra Modi became Prime Minister in 2014, the 'Beti Bachao Beti Padhao' campaign was launched. After that, several programmes for women empowerment were implemented, ranging from the 'Matru Vandana Yojana' to many other initiatives, enabling daughters across the country to move towards self-reliance. In the coming years, daughters and sisters will also be elected to 33 per cent of the seats in the Legislative Assemblies and Parliament".

CM Yogi Adityanath referred to the theme of Mission Shakti, which focuses on safety, dignity, and self-reliance. He added, security is the first condition and it should be available to every person. Security builds confidence, confidence creates a sense of self-respect, and this feeling of self-respect leads a person toward the goal of self-reliance. Self-reliance will become the foundation of the vision of a 'Viksit Bharat'.

CM added: "It is the responsibility of every resident of the state to ensure that the steps taken by government departments for the safety of daughters, the dignity of women, and self-reliance reach women effectively. This will become the foundation of a Viksit Bharat. Viksit Bharat means happiness on every face and employment for every hand. Every individual, with confidence, will join the 'Mera Bharat Mahan' campaign and contribute to establishing India as a powerful nation. This will happen only when the population participates strongly".

CM announced that the next phase of Mission Shakti will begin during Navratri.
