

Private investment is aiding UP's healthcare growth, says CM Yogi

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Lucknow: Emphasising the need for society, govt and institutions to work together, chief minister Yogi Adityanath on Saturday said that Uttar Pradesh's development was a result of their cooperation and that it helped the state become a symbol of trust.

Speaking at the inauguration of a superspecialty hospital in Agra, the CM said it is the right of every individual to get access to good healthcare and added that private investment was essential in the healthcare sector.

“Govt is making efforts at

Chief minister Yogi Adityanath during the inauguration of a hospital in Agra on Saturday its level, but when govt and society work together, results increase many times over,” he said.

He also highlighted other initiatives taken to improve the healthcare sector.

► New policy, P 7