

UP showcases textile investment opportunities at Bharat Tex 2026; emerging as India's preferred textile destination

STATESMAN NEWS SERVICE
Lucknow, 21 July

Uttar Pradesh put its textile ambitions on full display at Bharat Tex 2026 in New Delhi, as the Department of Handloom & Textiles hosted a high-profile State Session that drew policymakers, industry leaders, investors and exporters.

The event spotlighted the state's investor-friendly policies, expanding industrial ecosystem, and bold vision of transforming into a globally competitive hub for textiles and apparel manufacturing — weaving together opportunity, innovation, and growth on the national stage.

The Uttar Pradesh State Session at Bharat Tex 2026 on Tuesday was inaugurated by UP Minister for Handloom & Textiles, Khadi & Village Industries and Sericulture, Rakesh Sachan, who reaffirmed the state's vision of building a modern, innovation-driven and globally competitive textile industry.

Highlighting policy-led growth and a strengthening industrial ecosystem, he emphasised sustained efforts to attract investments across the textile value chain. Uttar Pradesh is positioning itself as a major hub by leveraging its strong handloom base while encouraging garment manufacturing and technical textiles. Presentations underscored policy measures, production clusters and employment generation linked to the sector.

A key highlight of the event was the distribution of incentives and issuance of Letters of Comfort (LoCs) under the Uttar Pradesh Textile & Garmenting Policy 2022, reflecting the state's commitment to supporting existing industries while facilitating new investments.

Financial incentives were provided to four textile units, with K.D. Prints Private Limited, Meerut receiving Rs 2.37 crore, G.O. Polymers Private Limited, Moradabad receiving Rs 1.26 crore, Patronus Apparels Pvt. Ltd., Bulandshahr receiving Rs 80 lakh, and Vintex Industries, Bulandshahr receiving Rs 74 lakh. The incentives will support capacity expansion, technology upgradation and employment generation.

The government also issued Letters of Comfort to four companies investing in the state. The beneficiaries included Chahat Exports LLP (Rs 16.18 crore), Artex Mills Pvt. Ltd. (Rs 2.10 crore), Rachit Prints Limited (Rs 1.40 crore) and Avanti Overseas Pvt. Ltd. (Rs 3.18 crore). The initiative reinforces Uttar Pradesh's commitment to facilitating investments through proactive policy support and ease of doing business.

Mr Sachan led Business-to-Government meetings with potential master developers of PM MITRA Park and Sant Kabir Park, focusing on infrastructure and timely implementation.

The Uttar Pradesh State Session at Bharat Tex 2026 featured detailed presentations on textile policies and investment opportunities, followed by industry discussions on global competitiveness, sustainable manufacturing and positioning the state as a preferred destination for apparel investments.

Senior officials, including Anil Kumar Sagar, Principal Secretary, Handloom & Textiles; K. Vijayendra Pandian, Commissioner & Director, MSME, Handloom & Textiles; and Prem Sharma, Additional CEO, Invest UP, also participated in the session.

