LUCKNOW: Chief minister Yogi Adityanath on Monday reviewed follow-up action after the Japan delegation's recent visit to Uttar Pradesh and directed officials to put land acquisition for the proposed Japanese City project under YEIDA on the fast track.

Adityanath was chairing a meeting with Invest UP and other departments.

Officials said out of 500 acres required for the Japanese City project, acquisition of more than 350 acres has been completed. Officials also gave the CM a detailed briefing about all MoUs signed with the Japanese delegation.

The proposed Japanese City is planned in Sector 5A, Greater Noida as a dedicated industrial township for Japanese companies.

The chief minister reiterated a Yamanashi Japan Desk should be created separately in Invest UP to ensure continuous dialogue with Japan. He also directed that a progress report be taken every three months.

He directed that delegations from Uttar Pradesh should be sent to various global events scheduled in Japan in September, October and December. These delegations should include ministers, public representatives, officials, industrialists and subject experts.

He said steps should be taken to culturally link Sarnath and Japan's Nara, both included in UNESCO World Heritage list.

CM asks officials to help woman seeking self-reliance through cow rearing

LUCKNOW : Chief minister Yogi Adityanath on Monday instructed officials to provide an abandoned cow to a woman who expressed her desire to rear cows during a 'Janata Darshan' event in Lucknow, according to an official statement.

In response to her request, the CM directed the additional chief secretary of animal husbandry to ensure she received an abandoned cow and the benefits of any applicable government schemes.

In her application to the chief minister, Poonam Devi stated that she wanted to become self-reliant through cow rearing.

He advised Poonam to serve the cows with devotion, as cows are regarded as the abode of 33 crore deities. He shared his own
