

'Next five yrs will shape UP's ind growth'

Lucknow: The next five years will be crucial for UP's industrial growth and govt is mindful of that, Invest UP CEO Vijay Kiran Anand said during an interaction with CII members here on Thursday.

"The coming five years will be crucial for the state's growth. Policies must remain aligned with industry requirements, while effective implementation and regular feedback from industry are equally important," Anand said.

At a CIIUP members' meet, industry representatives discussed investment facili-tation, infrastructure, approvals, policy implementation and ease of doing business with Anand. Members shared their experiences of operating in the state and flagged issues and suggestions related to the investment ecosystem.

Anand stressed the need for sustained engagement between govt and industry to ensure that sectoral policies translate into investments, employment and growth on the ground.

The interaction also focused on emerging investment opportunities across sectors in Uttar Pradesh and ways to facilitate their conversion into projects. TNN
