

22 companies to invest Rs 695.18 cr in dairy sector in UP; provide employment to 2,500 youth

STATESMAN NEWS SERVICE

Lucknow, 30 September

The Uttar Pradesh International Trade Show (UPITS-2026) has brought significant employment opportunities for the youth. Through proposals received at the trade show, 22 dairy companies will invest Rs 695.18 crore in the state, which will help provide employment and jobs to over 2,500 youth.

Ace International Ltd. will make the largest investment in the dairy sector here.

The company will invest Rs 457 crore in Hathras, Aligarh, and Agra, providing employment to 1,500 youth. Investment proposals worth Rs 100 crore have been received from Carebro Innovators Pvt. Ltd.

Aditya Goyal of Ace International Ltd. considers Uttar Pradesh an ideal investment destination. He stated that his company will invest Rs 457 crore here. He has coordinated with the department regarding the proposed investment in Hathras, Aligarh, and Agra. He will engage over 1,500 youth and put them on the path to prosperity.

The Dairy Development Department has received investment proposals from Carebro Innovators Pvt. Ltd. Investor Amit Singh announced that his company will invest Rs 100 crore in Ayodhya, Lucknow, Meerut, and Bareilly. This project will provide employment to over 250 young people.

This investment proposal was received from the Dairy Development Department under the Uttar Pradesh Dairy Development and Milk Product Promotion Policy-2022.

The stalls of the department, cooperative, and private dairy entrepreneurs were well-attended.

Numerous companies participated, including Parag-Amul, Namaste India, Paras Dairy, Gyan Dairy, New Era Dairy, Alpha Milk Foods, and CP Milk.

Finance Controller Arvind Kumar Singh, Chief Dairy Development Officer AP Singh, and Dairy Development Officer IB Singh informed investors and visitors about the department's schemes.

Dhanalakshmi K., state Milk Commissioner, said, "The Dairy Development Department received investment proposals worth Rs 695.18 crore at the Uttar Pradesh International Trade Show (UPITS-2026).