

Flight to Ras Al-Khaimah launched

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Lucknow: The direct flight service from Lucknow to Ras Al-Khaimah of UAE to be operated by Air India Express was inaugurated on Thursday.

This is the flight service to the ninth international destination from Chaudhary Charan Singh International (CCSI) Airport.

CCSI Airport spokesperson said, "Ras Al Khaimah is the 9th international destination from Lucknow and a new route for Air India Express from Uttar Pradesh's capital. With the addition of this flight, the number of international movements increased to 21 from 19 earlier."

The first flight with 170 passengers departed from Lucknow at 8:35am on Thursday and reached Ras Al-Khaimah at 10:55am (IST). The airline will be operating the Lucknow to Ras Al-Khaimah flight on Tuesday, Thursday, and Saturday. The Ras Al-Khaimah to Lucknow flight will depart at 11:55 hours (local time) and 13:25 hours (IST) and arrive in Lucknow at 17:15 hours (IST) and will be operated on Tuesday, Thursday, and Sunday.