

Yogi: Once dreaded, Gorakhpur has now become tourist hotspot

Arjumand Bano | TNN

Gorakhpur: Inaugurating the floating restaurant on Ramgarh Tal, CM Yogi Adityanath on Thursday said Gorakhpur that once evoked fear and where there were no basic amenities seven years ago, was now a hub of development, employment, and a modern tourism centre.

He distributed allotment certificates to seven allottees of a residential project of the Gorakhpur Development Authority.

He said fertiliser plant in the city had shut down, BRD Medical College had become dysfunctional and commuters were stuck in traffic jams all day long, but over the past seven years, four-lane and six-lane roads came up and the city's airport was now one of the busiest in India.

The floating restaurant at Ramgarh Tal in Gorakhpur

He said the 1,800-acre natural lake Ramgarh Tal was attracting tourists with its renewed beauty, thanks to hotels and cruise service. Yogi said a ring road was being built around Ramgarh Tal.

BJP's Gorakhpur MP Ravi Kishan said under CM's leadership, Gorakhpur had undergone historic development