MIRZAPUR : Chief minister Yogi Adityanath, on Thursday, reaffirmed his commitment to connecting Mirzapur's development with the twin pillars of faith and economy. "With the blessings of Maa Vindhyavasini and the double-engine government, Mirzapur's development has accelerated significantly," he said.

Attending a programme at BLJ Ground in Mirzapur to mark eight years of the Uttar Pradesh Government's 'Policy of Service, Security, and Good Governance,' Adityanath was joined by Union minister Anupriya Patel, Jal Shakti minister Swatantra Dev Singh, and other officials.

Mahakumbh-2025, Adityanath noted that faith-driven economic growth, as seen during the Mahakumbh, would further propel Mirzapur's progress.

He also highlighted the Maa Vindhyavasini Corridor's impact on increasing footfall and income opportunities in the region.

The CM stated that projects worth approximately Rs 900 crore are currently underway in Mirzapur, including the successful completion of the Bansagar project, with new projects worth nearly Rs 500 crore in the pipeline.

During the event, the CM highlighted Mirzapur's progress over the past eight years. He inaugurated multiple development projects, laid foundation stones for new initiatives, and honoured beneficiaries of various government schemes.

Sharing the stage with Union Minister Anupriya Patel and State Jal Shakti Minister Swatantra Dev Singh, he distributed certificates and appointment letters to Anganwadi workers, house keys to beneficiaries of the PM and Mukhyamantri Awas Yojana, and a Rs 5 lakh cheque under the Mukhyamantri Yuva Udyami Yojana.

Additionally, laptops and tablets were provided under the Chief Minister Bal Seva Yojana, while differently-abled children received Braille kits and hearing aids.
